

SMART, PROMPT, EFFECTIVE SUPPORT FOR WORDPRESS WEBSITES

COMPREHENSIVE CARE PLAN TO MAKE WEBSITES WORRY-FREE

Website Repair

When your WordPress website simply does not work, you need an expert to diagnose, repair and protect your site and get it back on line, safely and quickly. MESH has years of experience and can get the job done right the first time.

Website Maintenance

WordPress websites are built with plugins and utilities that usually result in beautiful websites. And then there are updates and software conflicts that mess things up. That's where Maintenance comes in. We can help get the beauty back!

Content Updates

Your website needs to keep up with your business. Whether it's adding new text, photos, links, downloadable PDFs, or new functions, the MESH WP Support Care Plan has got you covered. You can send us the changes and we'll apply the updates or we can show you how to do it yourself.

Website Optimization

Photos, graphics, old content revisions, outdated and unused plugins - they all play a part in slowing down your website and compromising your website visitor's experience. MESH can optimize your website components so everything runs smoothly... your visitors and search engines will love that!

Website Security

Almost one-third of all websites are built with WordPress; that's why hackers spend so much time trying to break into WordPress websites. Website hardening is important - it includes making sure that your admin logins are properly configured, your site has https:// plus so much more!

Website Hosting

Safe, secure, reliable WordPress hosting is so important to ensuring that your website is available to your visitors whenever and wherever they are. MESH provides state-of-the-art hosting that's blazingly fast, budget-friendly and 99.99% reliable. Your website deserves nothing less!

The MESH Website Care Plan is offered as a subscription service, billed automatically to your credit card every month. There are no contracts to sign and you can cancel any time.

WEBSITE CONTENT PROMPTER

What should you write about on your website for your visitors?

Information about the kinds of clients you work with and what their issues are. There's nothing about you here. It's all about them. You want them to think: "He understands me!"

Information about your approach to working with clients. You want to write about the kind of results they can expect, your process of working with clients, your business philosophy, etc. You want them to think: "I could work with them!"

Information with very results-oriented case studies. You want stories about clients you worked with, how you helped them and the kind of results you produced together. You want them to think: "This is impressive!"

In-depth information on your specific services. You want to outline the results, the benefits, the process and structure of working with you. You want them to think: "This sounds great. I hope I can afford them!"
